Back and Neck Pain.....Meeting the challenge together

At least 80% of the UK population experience back pain at some stage in their lives - that's 51 million people

Established in 1968, BackCare is a small national charity with a big remit, which can be distilled into three core objectives:

- to prevent unnecessary back injury through education and information
- involvement in spinal health and wellbeing research projects
- providing information and signposting support to those living with back pain

Often invisible, back pain is a Cinderella condition - all too often ignored and neglected. However, it is a major health issue adversely impacting lives. It can be responsible for depression, anxiety, loss of mobility and low self-esteem which in turn can lead to the breakdown of families, loss of employment and poverty. If you, or someone close to you, lives with chronic back pain, you know how wretched it can be. Words cannot begin to convey the suffering and unhappiness it can cause.

Our supporters help us to continue our work in assisting even more people who are living with back pain, whilst also helping to prevent avoidable back-related injury.

Together, we can make a difference.
